Did You Know?

You can log-in to over 80 Government of Canada services with your bank log-in. It's free!

There is no need to create another user ID and password for federal e-gov services.

Your privacy is protected, your online activity is never tracked and your personal information is never shared.

Use Your Trusted Bank ID for Government of Canada Services

SecureKey Concierge has partnered with some of Canada's largest banks so you can use your trusted bank log-in for and secure access to many federal e-gov services. Best of all, it's free!

What is SecureKey Concierge?

SecureKey Concierge is a commercial service that makes it possible for you to consolidate all of your Canadian e-gov accounts under a single log-in. Instead of creating yet another user ID and password, you can now log-in with your bank ID to use Service Canada, Canada Revenue Agency and many more government resources online.

SecureKey Concierge operates independently of its partner banks and the Government of Canada to respect your privacy. Your name, address, date of birth, PIN and other personal information stays safely with your bank. You can rest assured that no personal data is ever provided to the government sites during log-in.

66% of Canadians forget passwords for websites not visited regularly.

Using your bank log-in for online government services is a safe and secure way to access your information.

Experience What Millions of Canadians Already Know

You can trust your bank log-in to:

- View your tax info and returns
- Apply for the Child Tax Benefit
- Review your TFSA transaction details
- Check your RRSP account
- Review your Old Age Security details
- See your Canada Pension Plan statement
- And much more!

SecureKey Concierge is currently available for over 80 services offered by the Government of Canada departments and agencies.
